How came he there? Has he escaped hanging? I knew Coolidge well, at Waterville—and if this is not him then I never saw the man. His beard was very thin and scattered over his thin narrow face, but it had grown out two or three inches in length. 'He passed here by the name of Wilkins. His eye I could not mistake. He appeared well, but in no other way altered, save that he was meanly dressed, and looked a little harder than usual. I told my helief to W and the next than usual. I told my belief to W., and the next morning Coolidge was gone. Where he has wandered I cannot guess-but I feel sure that it was him. If you ever write tell me what this can mean or am I deceived ?"

> A Voice from California!! Fever and Ague Remedy.

YOUNG, 152 Spruce street, between Fourth and Fifth,

THE FOLLOWING LETTER from the most reliable source, cannot fail to convince the most scepticai, that the above remedy is one of the best specifies, ever offered to the public; more especially, when it is considered that the disease here, assumes its worst form prostrating the strongest men; and reducing them so low, as to be scarcely recognizable by their friends after a week's sickness
Cupt. Spring informs me, that after he had disposed of all of this medicine, he was offered $100 a bettle for

New York, May 10, 1849. Mr. Isaac Osgood: Dear Sir—On my late voyage to California, I took out with me a few dozen bottles of Boupland'e Fever and Ague remedy, not so much a matter of profit, as to introduce it into that section of the country, where it is so much needed: an invaluable remedy for a disease so prevalent.

I temedy for a disease so prevalent.

My busines prevented my giving that attention to the sale of it, which it deserved, but it passed from second hands at very much higher prices than those at which I disposed of it, say 25 or 30 dollars per bottle; and in no single instance, did I learn of its having been used, where it was not attended with perfect success.

From Mr. Sutter, (sou of Capt. Sutter at New Helvetis,) I learned it was 'beyond price.' No man should the cold regious without being armed with this young to the gold regions without being armed with this weapon of defence. I have been an eye witness of a wast amount of distress and suffering, brought on by this disease, of which I believe this medicine to be a complete and perfect cure.

Signed, yours truly,

J. H. SPRING, of ship Huntress.
